

WHAT MAKES TSWALU UNIQUE

Sense of Space Tswalu

Tswalu Kalahari is South Africa's largest private game reserve. This vast and magical landscape takes conservation as its first priority; with its vision: To leave our world better than how we found it.

Flexibility

No other game reserve offers such flexibility. Each booking receives their own private vehicle, guide and tracker. Your private, dedicated team gives you the flexibility to choose how you would like to spend your day – from breakfast in bed and an indulgent spa treatment in the comfort of your own deck overlooking the Kalahari, to a leisurely game drive, and a delicious private gourmet picnic which reflects the essence of Africa.

Malaria-free Safari

Tswalu is MALARIA-FREE and guests do not have to worry about taking anti-malaria tablets. It is ideal for families, and at Tswalu we welcome children and actively encourage them to participate fully in the safari experience.

Rare and Diverse Wildlife

Tswalu has superlative game, offering sightings of some of South Africa's rarest and most extraordinary wildlife, including:

- Desert black rhino - Tswalu's population represents one third of South Africa's entire remaining desert black rhino
- White rhino
- Black-maned Kalahari lions
- Leopard
- Disease-free buffalo
- Wild dogs
- Cheetah

- Meerkats
- Giraffe
- Rare antelope such as roan, sable and tsessebe - Tswalu has significant populations of all three species.

There are over 80 species of mammals and 240 species of birds (including endangered raptors), at Tswalu, which is also home to the elusive aardvark, aardwolf, pangolin and brown hyena.

Ancient San Artworks

The Kalahari is the ancestral home of the San people, and some of their ancient engravings can be seen at Tswalu; current research suggests these may be amongst the oldest artworks on Earth.

Privacy and Exclusivity

At maximum capacity Tswalu will take only 28 adults in total – both camps combined. This represents the lowest imaginable density of visitors. The emphasis at Tswalu is on privacy and exclusivity – your own private Kalahari safari. Children are welcome at both camps.
